(b) if so, whether Government have taken any steps so far in this regard; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (SHRIMATI JAYAWANTI MEHTA): (a) to (c) As per provisions of Section 43A (1) (c) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, a generating company can sell power to any person with the approval of the Government or Governments concerned.

The Electricity Bill, 2001 as introduced in Lok Sabha in August, 2001, empowers the State Electricity Regulatory Commission to allow open access for consumers in distribution in phases after cross subsidies are eliminated. It also provides that such open access may be allowed before cross subsidies are eliminated on payment of surcharge in addition to the charges for wheeling as may be determined by the State Commission. Such surcharge will be utilized to meet the requirement of current level of cross subsidy. The bill also provides that where such open access has been allowed, such consumers may enter into agreement with any person for supply or purchase of electricity on mutually agreed tariff.
